Dedication

The 1961 Sagebrush Echo is affectionately dedicated to Mr. Raphael Toner, our friend and class sponsor.

The Class of '61

The Echo staff wishes to express its appreciation for the help Mr. Toner has given us each year by cutting the patterns for the Senior page layouts.

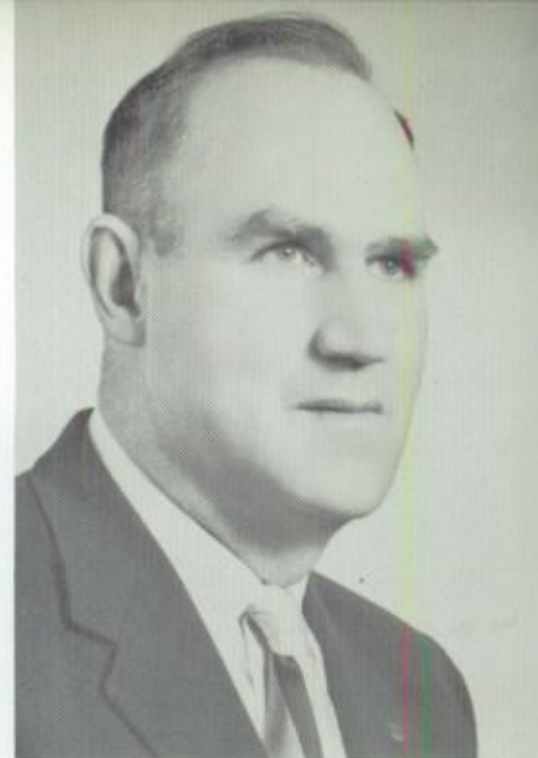

Administration

VALE-FAREWELL

To be a citizen of Lakeview is a pleasure and an honor that should not be taken lightly. The community, both adults and students, is fortunate to have school personnel and school board informed and aware of the present-day needs of education for the total community. Lakeview has excellent school facilities and a comprehensive school program including classes from kindergarten to post high school, all under the direction of enthusiastic administration and faculty members.

My sincere wish to each one of you, in this, my eleventh and last message as Lakeview High School Principal, is that you claim your full share of this heritage, and of your larger heritage of freedom of opportunities in our American democracy.

Delbert M. Milholland

TO THE 1961 GRADUATES:

For a number of years I have had the privilege of addressing the Lakeview High School graduating seniors through the Sagebrush Echo. This will be my last, since I, too, am "graduating" from the Lakeview schools. It has been gratifying to serve the young people of this community for the past thirteen years.

As you eagerly look toward achievements in the immediate future, and the living of adult lives, may you remember this thought: Life is a series of commencements, and it is how you begin each new venture and carry it on that determines your value in this world.

May each new beginning for you be made with firm determination and renewed faith. Have faith in the future; train yourself to serve others humbly, willingly, and with sympathetic understanding. Bend your efforts to the giving of your very best to your country, your fellowmen, and your God.

My wish for each one of you is success all along the way, but the test of it all is not the success itself; it is rather in the way you achieve it.

Mr. and Mrs. H.B. Ferrin

A Tribute

Lakeview has been blessed by the presence of Margaret and Holman Ferrin. For thirteen years they have worked together for a better school system and a better community. Duty, service, and obligation have meant more to them than mere words. Because of this, Lake County is richer.

Mr. Ferrin came to Lakeview as City School Superintendent July 1, 1948. He has never stopped seeking better ways to make the Lakeview school system one of the best in the state; not only from the standpoint of the instructional program, but also in providing facilities which now house the fourteen hundred pupils enrolled from kindergarten through senior high school. In his quest for the best in education for the future generations of Lake County as a whole, Mr. Ferrin believes that progress is the solution to educational problems. His dedication to continuity of effort and his vision and leadership will be exemplified in the construction of our splendid new high school. This building, housing well-prepared future citizens, will forever stand as a tribute to Mr. Ferrin's ability to transfer dreams into reality.

The quiet authority of quality is the foundation for the respect and love which faculty, students, and citizens hold for Mr. Ferrin.

Margaret Ferrin's selfless dedication to her role as a good helpmate through these past thirteen fruitful years has endeared her to the hearts of the entire community. By her many "little unremembered acts of kindness and of love", her quiet graciousness has touched the lives of all faculty and all students. Her wise judgment and calm appraisal of situations has sustained her husband. Hand in hand they have planned. Together they have worked.

To a great team we pay homage. These two remarkable unforgettable Americans have left their mark in our community. May their retirement years be blessed with the memory of a task well done.

Mrs. Anne Sprague
County School Superintendent

Dr. Bernard Daly

From the southwest corner of the Lakeview High School Auditorium, the kindly face of Doctor Bernard Daly looks out over the assembled students, many of whom will be assisted through college by the educational fund he established. This bronze bust of Dr. Daly is the work of Rex Sorenson, who studied sculpture at the University of Oregon. The bust, which was commissioned by the Daly Fund beneficiaries early in the thirties, was first placed in the lobby of The Bank of Lakeview. When the bank was sold, the likeness of Dr. Daly was moved to the high school auditorium where it may be seen today.

Through the years many devoted people leave the imprint of their personalities and their work upon the school. Lakeview High School was perhaps most deeply influenced by Doctor Bernard Daly.

Doctor Daly came to Lake County on horseback in 1887. For thirty-three years he served his adopted county with vigor and with a rich dream for the future. He was not only a doctor and druggist; his faith in Lake County led him into real estate and stock ventures which made him wealthy. Concern for the welfare of the state sent him to the Oregon Legislature, where his influence still lives on. At fifty-three he passed the Bar Exam and became a lawyer, county judge, and finally the first Circuit Judge in this area. For twenty-three years he served on the Lakeview School Board, working constantly to help the young people.

Following his death in 1920, Doctor Daly's memorable will surprised and thrilled Lake County citizens. He left his whole fortune, some $610,000, "... to assist worthy and ambitious men and women of my beloved county of Lake, to acquire a good education. . ."

Nearly five hundred Lake County students have now been given the privilege of attending college on the generous Daly Fund scholarships. Approximately two hundred of these have continued through graduation.

Let us be worthy of so great a heritage.

Mrs. D. M. Milholland

Ann Furuskog--AFS Representative from Sweden

This year in Lakeview High School has given me more experience than I have ever had. I have learned to live together with and understand people who think differently from me about many things. My own society at home is not too different from that of Lakeview, but there are many small details that differ. They might not be of great significance, but to me they have been very important. I had to adjust to the American way of life and believe me, it wasn't easy. But it was very good for me, and I feel that I am quite a different person now than I was when I first came. I laugh at the same jokes my American friends do; I talk English better than Swedish (I have just had the experience of talking Swedish, and that was terrible); I think in English all the time; I have American table manners, and sometimes I even check my weight and think that I really should keep a diet (but I will never keep one!)

I have changed in other ways too, ways that most people don't notice. When I first came here, I was trying to act American, but I was just acting. I was too sophisticated, and I tried to look at things in my own way. I kept telling myself and others that I did not miss all the big parties at home, the dances, shows, plays, and operas I was so used to having all the time. At first I did miss it a little, but now I have learned to like Lakeview just as it is--in the middle of the desert, with the sagebrush in every direction, and, most important of all, all the friendly and helpful people. I like this better than the big city, crowded with rushed people, who never have time to stop and say a friendly word.

I cannot understand how anybody who has a chance does not apply for an AFS Scholarship. That's how much it has done for me. I know it is impossible, but I want to show all of you my home country, make you understand it the same way I have learned to understand Lakeview and America. That is international understanding, the main purpose of AFS.

Yours,

Ann Furuskog

Ann with her hostess,
Mavis Kliever.

Students

As the Echo staff worked toward the final deadline, the announcement was made that Mr. D. M. Milholland, our principal, will not be with us next year. On behalf of the student body, we wish to express our appreciation of all that he has done for us. We realize that he has worked to expand and enrich the curriculum by the addition of many courses so that we can have a wider choice of subjects and better preparation for college entrance. In addition, his work as a counselor, his leadership of the student council, and his enthusiastic support of all our student activities will be gratefully remembered by all of us.

THESPIAN ACTIVITIES

"Places, everyone! Lights! Curtain!" Echoing through the memories of the Thespians will always be the thrill these words recall of the timorous joy they felt when the lights went up in 1960.

The year began with a welcoming assembly vaguely resembling a Dr. I.Q. program of ancient radio fame. Each new teacher received recognition by presenting to Dr. I.Q. (Tom Tooke) a question pertinent to his new position. Thanksgiving saw an assembly, "Football Hero," directed by Terry Lincecum, and featuring Dennis Vincent, Margery Blair, Jack Sinton, Paul McCormick, Karin Windle, and Carole Tainter. This skit was presented to the ladies of the Presbyterian Church at an annual dinner. The Christmas assembly, directed by Jim Griener, portrayed in song, choral reading, and pantomime, the story of the Nativity. Background for the program in the form of a large stained-glass window, was the handiwork of Vicki Carlson and Elva Bratton.

"The Absent-Minded Bridegroom," a three-act comedy, was presented in October and "A Man Called Peter," taken from the life of Peter Marshall, was the mid-winter presentation in February. Mary Lee Scoville was student director of the latter.

Senior Thespians assisted in the direction of junior high school one-act plays. Five members of the club attended the state Drama Conference at Eugene on February 3 and 4.

At the request of the Eastern Star, a skit entitled "Complaint Department" was presented in December. The Girls' League requested the same skit for a pre-Christmas assembly.

SEASON RECORD

16 Wins
6 Losses

Although the Lakeview Honkers were shorter than practically all of their opponents, they had one of the best seasons in L. H. S. history. The shorter Honkers made up for their height defect by sheer determination and hustle and wound up with a season record of sixteen wins and six losses. The Honkers were led in points this season by Senior Guard, Doug Maxwell, who accounted for 216 points. Troy McCoy led the Honkers in rebounding by grabbing off 208. The whole student body is proud of Ted McKee's Varsity squad, and the very successful year they had.

Kay, 1/2 one of the sweetest and nicest girls I have ever known. I have really enjoyed seeing around with you. I wish it could have started sooner.
I wish you would move down by J.C.
so you could be closer to me. But if you can't you can't. Remember all the fun & trouble we have had together. Like the time I just about wrecked your car. And the week end we was with Larry and just about wrecked his car too. I hope that sometime in the future we can get together again. I wish you and your future law. I hope you would be my sister-in-law. That would get married so you would be staying most all in the past. I hope from my nerves. But that it God will spare you with ever wish that you ever want that he will always look over your way and never let any thing or anyone ever stand in your way and never hurt you ever.
I hope your Dad stays here in Fabrian until I have or far the rest of the summer. Mother has said she really enjoyed having you down to the future. I hope that you and Dad get to goather in the future. I hope to stop because she fell it going to mine in a min. May God bless you and keep you from harm.
P.S. Don't forget to write me & I will here is more you can come & I will write until I get married. Mary
